

Installation Guides

This page provides specific instructions, recipes and tips for specific server environments. For a "typical" install in a Linux-Apache-MySQL web hosting environment like most web hosting companies provide, see Installation. For tips on installing Tiki with specific web hosting companies see below.

Environment	Help Page	Comments
Remote
SourceForge hosted 	SourceForge Install
GNU/Linux
Generic GNU/Linux + Apache	Linux Install
Debian or Debian-based 	Debian Install
Ubuntu Server	Ubuntu Install
Gentoo Linux ebuild instructions	Gentoo Install
Mitel SME Server	Mitel SME Install	http://www.e-smith.org
Apache Virtual Hosting	MultiTiki Virtual Hosting Install
Gforge Server	Gforge Install	Very easy for multitiki's
FreeBSD
FreeBSD	FreeBSD Install
Multitiki (on GNU/Linux)
"Virtual Hosting" based	MultiTiki Recipe
"Subdirectories" based	MultiTiki Akira (or GForge Install for GForge'd sites)
Intranet / Local Installations
GNU/Linux (Fedora) + Apache	Linux Intranet Install
Mac
Mac OS X (Server)	OS X Install
Windows

Desktop	Windows Desktop Install
Server	Windows Server Install
x86 Checkout Version
GNU/Linux Live CD + Tikiwiki	TikiLive CD	download, burn, reboot (or use it with VMWarePlayer)
VMware
VMware Player	TikiWiki VMware Appliance (or TikiLive CD + VMWare Live CD player)
Moving
Move Tiki to another server	Move Tiki to a new server	Worked for me. Feel free to add!

---

For more information on the Tiki installation process

- Database Performance and Performance have tips to improve server performance
- Upgrade Instructions are at Upgrade
- Linux